Discussion Questions

1. What experiences do you have of God initiating a conversation with you? Who were the angels who showed up in your life?
2. What role do you find yourself in more often: the one affirming and offering reassurance to the presence of God in someone else's life, or the one looking for that reassurance from others? Both roles are needed. There isn't one more right nor more holy. What insight can you gain, though, from a reflection about which role which seems most natural for you?
3. Finding our place of deep gladness is a point in the journey, but not the goal. Grace happens when we find the match between our deep gladness with the worlds' deepest need. If you were to allow yourself to dream with God, what would you change in the world? What situation(s) tugs at your heart? What might God be calling you to do to make a difference in our broken world?
4. Elizabeth bore the messenger into the world, while Mary bore the message. We play a role in continuing to bear the message in the world. What message does your life say to the world?
