New venue, new location, new look and lots of new activities for the entire family at this year's Diocesan Convention in October at Spooky Nook Sports complex in Manheim, PA just outside of Lancaster. This Armstrong Industries repurposed flooring plant provides the community with over 700,000 under roof! Initially the 'Nook' catered to sports, but has grown over the years to include the Warehouse Hotel, the Forklift & Palate restaurant, as well as banquet and meeting space. With enough space for the Lancaster Home Show, and the Hempfield Marching Band to hold their end of year banquet, the Nook is versatile and big.

This fall as your spouse is sitting in Convention plenary, why not have some fun of your own, or better yet, with your kids. Included with your hotel accommodation is:

- Complimentary use of the Nook Fitness Center
- Free group exercise classes
- Easy access to all the activities and options at The Nook and the Diocesan Convention
- Complimentary $10 arcade card per child
- Discounts on Clip 'N Climb & rock climbing – Buy one / Get one Free. (If staying at elsewhere – pay regular price.)
- In-house, full service restaurant & bar, The Forklift & Palate

The 135 room hotel offers unique, re-purposed décor with a clean and contemporary feel. Each room has: Plush, Hypoallergenic Bedding, 40" Flat Screen TVs, Phones with Voice Mail, Free Wi-Fi Everywhere, Refrigerator, High-Speed Data Port and Modern Baths.

Come rock climb with Bishop Scanlan, take a yoga class or jog on a treadmill while watching others play basketball and/or volleyball below. There are sure to be people of all ages playing field hockey, softball, futsal, pickle ball or any other number of the 20 sports offered at the Nook. Go to www.nooksports.com and check it out. – see you at the Nook in October!

If you prefer to explore Lancaster while your spouse is busy, consider visiting, Central Market, Wilbur chocolate factory, The Pretzel House, the North Museum, Rockford Plantation, The Amish House, Tanger and Rockford Square Outlets. There are endless opportunities for fun, relaxation and good food. Check out www.DiscoverLancaster.com for a list of events and discoveries to be made while you are spending the weekend in Lancaster for the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania Annual Convention.

Registration for convention will open in July on the diocesan website – www.diocesecpa.org
