

Discussion Questions – Lent II, 2012 (The Rev. Duncan Johnston)

- Have you ever walked or driven past a homeless person? Did you think about stopping? If you did, what was your experience?
- Are there things in your life that God has called you to do, that you have chosen not to do? To paraphrase John Wesley, how has it been with your soul since then?
- How does the Trinity fit into your own faith?
- In rereading the Baptismal Covenant, how can you use Lent to follow God's call to seek God in all persons more closely?
