

Lent V Discussion Questions – Dr. Philip Jenkins

- What are some fears that you have that are preventing you from walking more closely with God or following God's call for you?
- What are some illusions that God is calling you to cast aside?
- What question in the baptismal covenant is most difficult for you to live out?
- What are some ways in which you are living in community with others (outside of your family)? What are some ways in which you are being an idiot (using the definition that Dr. Jenkins provides)?
- What have you learned about your covenant with God this Lent?
