PERPLEXING PARABLES

SATURDAY OCTOBER 29, 2016

9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

THE MEMORIAL CHURCH OF THE PRINCE OF PEACE

20 W. HIGH STREET

GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA 17325

We are thrilled to invite you to the 2016 Fall Assembly of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania Daughters of the King to be held on October 29, 2015 at The Memorial Church of the Prince of Peace, 20 W. High Street, Gettysburg, PA, 17325. All Daughters and others in the Diocese are welcome to attend.

Parable: a short story that teaches a moral or spiritual lesson; especially: one of the stories told by Jesus Christ and recorded in the Bible.

For this Assembly, we will be exploring the most enigmatic and often perplexing teachings of Jesus - The Parables. The parables range from (deceptively) straightforward to downright confusing. All are uniquely constructed to jolt our thinking into new and unexplored pathways. We will be walking these pathways with The Rev. Dr. Herbert Sprouse, Rector of the Memorial Church of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church.

We are lucky to have as a resource a unique body of artistic interpretations of the parables created over many years by sculptor (and UCC minister) Charles McCollough. McCollough's artistry is employed in support of his highly original and thought-provoking new understandings of the meaning of these complex stories. So, save the date of Saturday, October 29th in Gettysburg.

We hope that you will join us for the business meeting, study of the Parables, and special Assembly Eucharist.
