

The Finance Committee has restructured the Investment Committee as a subcommittee and appointed new members. As we move forward in evaluating the Diocesan investment program and policies it is essential to have a working and knowledgeable team to help the Diocese and Parishes with opportunities in our shared pool of investments.

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Fr. Herb Sprouse of Prince of Peace, Gettysburg, Mr. David Poch of Trinity Church in Williamsport, PA and Mr. Rob Jones of St. Stephen's Cathedral in Harrisburg, PA. Each brings gifts "to the table" that collectively will help lead the Diocese forward with our investment programs. Our Bishop, Audrey Cady Scanlan, and Canon to the Ordinary, Bill Graffius, are likewise members of this new investment team. Please meet your new investment team members:

David W. Poch

27 Quaker State Road, Montoursville, PA 17754

For over 40 years Mr. Poch served business and banking organizations, about half the time as a consultant and half as head of Trust and Asset Management Services in banks. This experience has provided a broad knowledge of investment management, personal trust and estates and retirement program administration. He started his own firm as a consultant for small business and financial companies in 1991. In addition to consulting work the business owned and operated 12 Mail Boxes Etc. centers and the Area Franchise for MBE in Northeastern Pa. He has consulted with businesses on organization, development, start-up, marketing, operations and general management.

Rob Jones is a retired banking executive with 40 years of experience in all aspects of corporate banking, retail banking, mortgage banking and trust services with regional banking companies in the greater Harrisburg area. Following his retirement from banking, he joined Brown, Schultz, Sheridan & Fritz (BSSF) CPAs in Camp Hill as Director of Business Advisory and Development Services where he provides guidance on strategic and business issues to the firm's clients. He has served on the boards of numerous nonprofit organizations and foundations and is currently serving on two charitable foundation boards as a member of or Chair of the Investment Committee. He is also Chair of the Board of the Harrisburg Area YMCA and serves on the Governance Committee of the United Way of the Capital Region and is a past Chair.

He is a 50 plus year member of St. Stephen's Cathedral in Harrisburg where he serves as a member of the Endowment Committee.

Since late 2013, the Rev. Herbert Sprouse has served as rector of the Memorial Church of the Prince of Peace in Gettysburg. He arrived from the Diocese of New Hampshire where he served as a hospital chaplain and parish priest. Prior to ordination he worked for more than 25 years as a management and strategic planning consultant to large non-profit cultural institutions, colleges universities and professional schools across the United States as well as in Southeast Asia, Western Europe and the Middle East. He holds an MBA from the Yale School of Management, an MDiv from Episcopal Divinity School and an MMus from the Yale School of Music. In addition to his work on the Finance Committee, Herb serves as chair of the Commission on Ministry and on the Board of the Stevenson School for Ministry.
