

Faith Neece is excited to join the Diocese as a member of the Episcopal Service Corps. She will live and serve in community with four other young adults at the Sycamore House, connected to St. Stephen's Cathedral in Harrisburg. Faith is originally from Knoxville, Tennessee. She graduated from Asbury University with a B.A. in English in May of 2018. She was highly involved in campus life as a residence assistant, transition and guidance counselor, reunion ambassador, and writing tutor. In her free time, she enjoys yoga, dance, and cross stitch.
