

Mr. Tom Roche is a long-time resident of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and has been a member of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Lancaster since 1984. Tom retired in 2020 as the Vice President of Tax for the Bank of Montreal's U.S. headquarters in Chicago. Prior to that, Tom spent a significant portion of his professional career with GE Capital.

Tom remains very active, serving previously as Treasurer, and now Senior Warden, at St. Thomas. Tom also spends much of his time volunteering with the Lancaster Food Hub, the Water Street Rescue Mission, and as a mentor and Chapter Treasurer with SCORE, the nation's largest network of volunteer small business mentors.

Tom received his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and Computer Science from Shippensburg University, and completed his Master's Degree in Taxation at Washington School of Law. Tom is also a veteran of the United States Navy.

Tom resides in Lancaster with his wife Sheryl, a retired school teacher, and their two cats, Samantha and Norm.
