

A longtime member of our diocese, Kevin will retire this spring from Penn State University where he has served in variety of administrative roles since 1986, most recently as Director of Volunteer Management. Kevin has an MA in Counseling Psychology, a BA in Speech Communications, and a Certificate as Worker Priest from the Stevenson School for Ministry. He serves as a faculty member of the Stevenson School for Ministry and in a part-time position as Priest in Charge at St. Luke's, Altoona. Kevin will be overseeing Shaped by Faith Phase Two which will administer grants for collaborative projects across the diocese.