

The Stevenson School for Ministry

No matter where you are in your spiritual journey, the SSFM is able to help you grow in your faith!

About SSFM

The Stevenson School for Ministry is dedicated to the lifelong learning and discernment processes of all Episcopalians in the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania and beyond.

We seek to make theological education available to all, because we believe it to be essential to furthering the mission and ministry of the Church.

LENTEN SERIES FOR ALL

MARCH 9, 16, 23, 30, APRIL ; WEDNESDAYS 7:00-8:00 PM

"MY SOUL IS THIRSTING"

Led by the Rev. Gina Campbell. God meets us in our thirsting and beckons us into a deeper companionship with God, with one another, and with ourselves. In this series, we pause to remember that God promises to meet us as we turn towards God with our hearts made for worship. Let us move together into life's deeper streams, exploring places where God promises to meet us; opening ourselves to be refreshed and renewed, trusting in the power of the Holy Spirit to lead us, and matching our steps to the Christ who goes before us to show us the way. Together, we will join in meditation and prayer, guided experiences, and the renewing of our hearts as we seek refreshment for the holy work entrusted to us. Register now.

MARCH 10, 17, 24, 31, APRIL 7; THURSDAYS 7:00-8:00 PM

"JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM: OUR GOSPEL CALL TO RACIAL RECONCILIATION"

Led by the Revs. Carla Christopher Wilson and Kevin Barron. A Lenten series on uncovering the practical aspects of our scriptural call to community activism. Too often we recognize God's summons to love our neighbor but we fall short in knowing how to begin. Focusing on a deep-dwelling in the Lenten Gospel passages, this series uplifts ways to move from transaction to transformation in our interactions and toward shared soul-tending with those who are different from us. Free for all to join! Register now.
